WRITER & COMMUNICATION SEMINARS

ABOUT ME

The world is an amazing place. There is so much to see and do, and great people to meet. On this journey called “life” I choose to either write or teach about it. We can all learn from each other, and this is the purpose of everything I do. Exchanging ideas, discussing challenges, and inspiring each other is what gets me out of bed every day, or keeps me from getting any sleep at all.
